Yellow Fever

PITTSBURG, Aug 26—The first case of yellow fever arrived this city last night on the steamer Abner O'Neil, from Wheeling. The patient is James Crawford, who had been employed on the river at Memphis. The board of health had him removed to the hospital above the city immediately after his arrival. Physicians who have examined the case say it is yellow fever, but not of a form that any danger need be apprehended. The collection for the relief of sufferers in the south amount to $5 000, all of which has been forwarded to various points.

NEW ORLEANS Aug 26—New cases 1254, deaths 41.

MEMPHIS August 26. From 6 p m yesterday to 6 p m today 76 new cases and 19 deaths are reported. Among the sick are the Sisters Dominican and Vincent of Lavelette academy and Fred Hennessey court of the Appeal. The fever is prevailing to an alarming extent among the colored people. One case was brought from camp Joe Williams morning, and fears are entertained it will break out among the refugees there. The work of depopulating the city continues.

PHILADELPHIA August 26—A number of families arrived from Vicksburg and Natchez here with the yellow fever a few days well.

NEW YORK August 26—The Board of Commerce Charity sent $3,500 to New Orleans Memphis and Vicksburg.

(Signed) P ANDERSON

GRENADA, August 26—Try and get Dr Mondidier back. Come back if not possible get one other physician. Only two local physicians are on duty, they will be down soon. Nurses for help of any kind wanted. Some families have not a well person to wait on them. The deaths last night were six.

DR VEASIE

In a dispatch this Kingston the Howard association sent Dr Stone with four nurses also supplies of all kinds, and authorized those in authority in Grenada to draw on the Howard association of this city for all needed supplies.

A special announces the death of Judge Thomas Walton at Atlanta of fever.

More Indians

VIRGINIA CITY, MONT August 26—Ranchmen from whom Indians stole stock at Red Rock, on the Montana road a week ago, followed them with a party of citizens till they found they had [illegible] when they returned. It is supposed they are Conejos. Small parties of soldiers are going from Fort Ellis and some of them will undoubtedly strike the Indians in a day or two.

Denver Herald has not yet stopped referring to the exploded slanders invented by the News in regard to Mr Pitkin

The Raleigh (N C) News thinks that the republicans will have two-thirds of the next congress if the other states follow the example of North Carolina

Judge Belford never spoke truer words than when he said "The only way we can dishonor the greenback is to dishonor the promise made on its face

The democrats will draw up articles of impeachment against Secretary McCrary for lending a thousand tents to the suffering people of Memphis without the sanction of law

According to the Canon City Record Thomas C Parrish made a stirring speech at the ratification meeting in that city His election to the state senate is considered sure beyond peradventure

The democrats have nominated for the legislature from Arapahoe county a Kentucky tender foot, J Q A King by name Those who attended the democratic convention at Pueblo will recall the incoherent speech he made while the convention was awaiting the report of the committee on resolutions

The democratic politicians have already been arranging a slate for the committees of the senate after the 4th of March next Of the 31 chairmanships the 14 southern States will have 22 Of this 22 there will be 12 who have served in the rebel army The next senate will probably have 31 republicans 44 democrats and 1 independent

We are continually receiving complaints written and oral in regard to the course of the News in this campaign We have two reasons for not publishing these complaints first because we have not room and secondly because the News is doing more to strengthen the republican ticket in this county than any other paper If the democrats can stand it we can

The Wilmington (N C) Star (Dem) like a good many other democrats thinks that Patterson had no right to his seat in the present congress It says If he (Belford) was foully dealt with, the people will be apt to return him by such a majority that congressional bull dozing cannot overcome and all fair minded men will say well done That is just what the republicans of this state intend to do

The Boulder county Courier, W G Shedd editor had some sound financial articles in its last number Such work will go much to counteract the false ideas given by the greenbackers The Courier is literally pounding the lion in his den and fact will overcome the greenhorn every time but timidity only strengthens them

The nation has so long and almost imperceptibly been recovering from the terrible effects of extravagance and inflation that few people are aware of the rapid progress we have made During the year ending June 30 1870 the year following the resumption law, our exports exceeded our imports $79 613 781 the year ending June 30 1877, $151 152 774 and the year ending June 30 1878 $257,832 667 or a total excess of 488 678 24 in three years Besides this favorable exhibit of our foreign trade we shall have this year the greatest crop of cereals ever known in our history more public land will be settled within the year than in the previous five years, our mills are manufacturing more goods than ever before Yet Mr Patterson and his greenback affinities would have the people of this state believe that the nation is getting poorer and poorer under the operation of the resumption law Mr Patterson believes that two yards of cloth measured by a yard stick eighteen inches in length, would be twice as much as one yard of cloth measured by a yard stick thirty six inches long

The Pall Mall Gazette published recently some interesting facts in regard to Alpine clubs The five principal societies, the English, French Italian, Austrian and German have 19 327 members These societies publish maps and reports train guides and in various ways contribute to safety and pleasure in traveling through the Swiss mountains As we read this account we wonder why more tourists who are in this vicinity should not form such a club There are very few parties that go into our mountains except by the beaten trails The mountain climbing practised in Switzerland is almost unknown in this country Considering the number of beautiful valleys and grand canons within a space of fifteen miles of us that are rarely seen by the eyes of man it is strange that such a club is not in existence If the young men of leisure in this city would form such a club they would do a good deal for this country Trips into the mountains from this point are almost confined to Pikes Peak and Cheyenne toll road except entrances to the canons for a short distance A good energetic club would do a great deal to advertise the beauties of the Rocky mountain scenery which, at present is viewed too superficially. Our tourist travel could be greatly increased by these means.

It is absolutely essential that the republican party should carry the next house, for if they do not the entire legislative branch will pass under the control of the democratic party The following table taken from the Philadelphia Times shows the republican party have been gradually losing power since 1871

1870—Majority in senate	50
Majority in house	97
Total	147
1871 Senate	4

If this table shows anything it shows that the party to be successful must not depend on past issues Our platform is preeminently fitted for the demands of the hour Its utterances are plain and vital If we adhere to this in our discussion, victory is assured

Recent articles in the Scientific American have pretty thoroughly exploded the theory recently advanced by supposed labor references that the introduction of labor-saving machinery is injurious to labor At no period has there been a greater improvement in machinery than between the years 1870 and 1875 According to the Rhode Island census wages and the number of hands employed were greatly increased as may be seen by the following table

ALL MANUFACTURES	1870	1875
Number of establishments	1 530	2 019
Capital invested	$66 557 328	$119 942 871
Hands employed	49 317	56 540
Wages paid per annum	$19 354 [illegible]	$23 [illegible] 513
Value of raw material used	$[illegible] 154 109	$ 6 [illegible] 970
Value of product	$111 418 354	$1 [illegible] 652 875
Number of steam engines	4 7	[illegible] 3
Horse power of engines	23 540	34,724

The statistics of the cotton manufactures Massachusetts illustrate the same thing

COTTON MANUFACTURE	1870	1875
Number of establishments	101	99
Number of looms	2 619 341	3 839 37
Persons employed	43 512	60 176
Capital invested	$44 714 375	$62 844 [illegible]08
Value of stock used	3 37 509	41 050 893
Value of goods made	59,403 [illegible]3	77 934,753

The same fact can be illustrated by statistics concerning manufactures in every part of the country The fact is that labor saving machinery has been the greatest blessing to the workingman The New England mechanic who earns $1 75 per day and lives economically enjoys more real comforts than even the magnificent Woolsey under Henry VIII A prince in the middle ages could not have afforded the amount of linen which a family in ordinary circumstances possesses There is no reason at the present time why a good mechanic should not give as good an education to his children furnish his family with as comfortable a dwelling and provide them with as many of the real comforts of life as the King of France furnished his family in the twelfth century

We understand that there is some talk of nominating Col Carroll D Wright of Massachusetts as the republican successor to Ben Butler in that district We don't know of a better nomination that could possibly be made He is the gentleman who has been gathering the valuable labor statistics in Mr Arthur's department during the last few years He probably has a more intelligent idea of the labor problem than any present member of congress His methodical method in gathering, sorting, tabulating his ability to marshall them in their proper relations and to make proper deductions from them will make a very valuable member of the national legislature just now We trust that the republicans in that district will think sufficiently favorable of his candidacy

What an Independent Paper Thinks

Pitkin is daily gaining strength in this section of country and many democrats are becoming thoroughly disgusted with the manner in which their own party papers are attacking his private character The respectable members of the democratic party here know Mr Pitkin to be an honest upright [illegible] man in every way worthy to fill the position of executive of the state Chieftain

A Flat Supper

A good and suggestive joke was recently played on a Stark county greenbacker at a certain country hotel After ordering supper the financier began a little discourse on the advantages of fiat money for the benefit of the farmers loitering in the bar room When he came to seat himself for the evening meal there was nothing upon the table but a napkin and a plate In some surprise he turned the latter over and found beneath it a slip bearing this inscription This is one supper In high dudgeon he demanded of the landlord an explanation Why said the latter person drily this is a flat supper Canton (Ohio) Repository

Diplomatic

The following interesting correspondence is now for the first time published

To Hon Wm M Evarts, Secretary of State

Sir—The unexpected arrival of a Chinese embassy at Washington prompts me to demand that that conspiracy between civilization and barbarism the Burlingame treaty be abrogated No people who prefer [illegible] to mutton chop or porter house steak are entitled to the privileges of the citizens of the most favored nations Very respectfully,

DENIS KEARNEY

DENIS KEARNEY, ESQ

SIR I agree with you that the devouring of rats by any class of human beings is a most detestable practice, but you are aware that de gustibus non est disputandum, and although I do not suggest it de auctoritate mihi commissa would not the objection upon which your demand is based be entirely removed by the simple expedient of [illegible] hung the California Chinese to eat rats? I have the honor to remain very respectfully yours

Injustice and Mercy.

Colonel H C De Ahna was appointed collector of the port of Sitka Alaska, just before the extra session of the senate and departed for his post He had only just arrived at Victoria British Columbia, to embark with furniture and family via steamer to Sitka when a dispatch was handed to him, notifying him that the senate had adjourned without confirming him He had to leave everything save wife and children and return when he found the cause of suspension was a charge made before the Glover committee that a bribe had been given to the appointment clerk of the treasury, and a promise to provide for one of Governor McCormick's friends to secure him his appointment De Ahna has been living in Washington with a wife and four children in great stress waiting for justice to be done him which in this case, has been more than usually slow The president, learning of his want of food quietly sent him an amount of money sufficient for two weeks maintenance and directed Assistant Secretary Seward to appoint De Ahna to some consulate not in a warm climate I need only to add that upon examination of Governor McCormick and others not a particle of evidence was found to justify the charges

There is some pretty low ground on the Rivers Ohio and Alleghany but there is but a small proportion of dry land which appears anywhere valuable either for timber or soil but especially for soil it abounds with hills and deep hollows and the land is so broken up that it is scarcely worth the labor of cultivation the Ephemeral of the moon affecting the tides of ocean, the same disadvantages from the earth which we go from then would lay out be so thus in that direction of land would afford a variety of beautiful human pose not unworthy the eye of a Philosopher

I can not think that ten acre lots on such pitts and hills will possibly meet with purchasers unless I do a pay in a poke it be kept out of view Would it not be more advantageous to the state if the legislature would alter the law—that town and a reasonable number of out lots for the accommodation of the town be laid out the rem under of the lands be laid out in 20 acre lots fronting on the river where practicable and extending back so as to include the hilly and uneven ground which might be of some use as farm

I can not believe but that Colonel Lowry and Colonel Irwin both members of the Assembly, and who know the land well, will on consideration be of the opinion with me that small lots on the sides of these hills can never be of use for any purpose but as above mentioned Perhaps council may think proper to alter the law before the legislature I shall go on to do the business as soon as the weather will admit and before I shall have proceeded further than may accord with the plan here proposed I may have the necessary information whether to go on is the law now directs or not

I have the honor to be your Excellency's and the Honorable the Council's most obedient servant DAVID REDICK
10th February 1788

This is fairly amusing when we view the Alleghany City of to day with its population of 60 000 its elegant residences its schools churches seminaries and institutes of learning its banks rolling mills and machine shops

Its lots are not now hidden like a pig in a poke except by costly improvements H V R Cincinnati Commercial

Shakespeare and Kearneyism

History repeats itself beyond question The ideas of Kearney (if indeed he is possessed of ideas) with regard to the labor movement are by no means original, but were foreshadowed by those stalwart adherents of Jack Cade, George Bevis and John Holland as related by one William Shakespeare in the Second part of King Henry VI Let our reader ponder on the following colloquy between these two notable worthies

Geo —I tell thee, Jack Cade the clothier (Kearney, the drayman) means to dress the commonwealth, and turn it, and set a new nap upon it

John —So he had need for 'tis threadbare Well I say it was never a merry world in England (the United States) since gentlemen came up

Geo O miserable age! Virtue is not regarded in handicrafts men

John The nobility think scorn to go in leather aprons

Geo Nay, are the king's Council are no good workmen

John True and yet it is said, labor is thy vocation which is as much as to say, as Let the magistrates be laboring men, and therefore should we be magistrates.

Geo Thou hast hit it, for there is no better sign of a brave mind than a hard hand

It is perhaps not unnatural to presume that should the followers of Kearney succeed in capturing the government in 1880, that redoubted leader may become a species of dictator, and emulating his great prototype, Jack Cade may say to his followers

"Be brave, then for your captain is brave and vows reformation There shall be seven half penny loaves sold for a penny the three hooped pot shall have ten hoops and I will make it felony to drink small beer all the realm shall be in common And when I am king there shall be no money all shall eat and drink on my score and I will apparel them all in one livery that they may agree like brothers and worship me their lord Boston Traveller

The Precious Metals

Apropos of this golden epoch and age of silver bonanzas, we learn from the most reliable sources of information that from the earliest times to the commencement of the Christian era the amount of precious metals obtained from the surface and mines of the earth is estimated to be $4 000,000 000 from the latter epoch to the discovery of America another sum of $4 000 000 000 was obtained, from the date of the latter event to 1800 in addition of $9,000 000,000 was made the extensive working of Russian gold mines in 1843 added to the close of 1842 $1 000 000 000 more, the discovery of the California gold mines in 1848, and those of Australia in 1851, added to the close of last year $5, 000 000 000, making a grand total at the present time of $23 000 000 000 The average loss by abrasion of coins is estimated to be a tenth of 1 per cent per annum, and the average loss by consumption in the arts and destruction by fire and shipwreck at from $2 000 000 to $8 000 000 per annum The amount of the precious metals now in existence is estimated to be $13 000 000 000 of which gold furnishes $7,000 000 000 and silver the remainder Of the amount now in existence $8 000 000,000 is estimated to be in coin and bullion, $3,000,000 000 in watches and the remainder in plate, jewelry and ornaments Of the amount now in existence $7,000 000 000 is estimated to have been obtained from America $3 000 000 000 from Asia (including Australia and New Zealand) $2 000 000 000 from Europe and the remainder from Africa Prior to the commencement of the Christian era the annual product of the precious metals was about $2 000 000 from the commencement of the Christian era to the discovery of America it was $3 000 000 in 350 years it attained to $25 000 000 during the decade immediately succeeding 1842 to 1852, it was $100 000 000, and since the double discovery of the California and Australian mines, 1853 to 1872, it has averaged $256 000 000 The annual product of the precious metals attained its acme in 1853, when it was $285 000,000 The increase in the amount of the precious metals in existence has been greater during the last twenty five years than during the previous 4000 With such magnificent results before us is it not singular that California and the Pacific slope do not cut a more important figure in the world of commerce? San Francisco Post

The Concert Last Evening

Every further [illegible] assembled in the City Hall [illegible] to attend the concert [illegible] the cities [illegible] given for the benefit of the Manitou College The evening was a delightful one, which tended greatly to the success of the entertainment The cornet band very kindly tendered their services and for some time before the commencement of the concert discoursed some excellent music in front of the hall

The Colorado Springs and Manitou Railroad

On Saturday night last the board of trustees of the Colorado Springs & Manitou railroad met at the county clerk's office in this city where an organization was effected and the following officers elected President, B F Crowell Secretary A V Hunter Treasurer Irving Howbert Some time was spent in discussing various plans, and a committee was appointed to confer with surveyors and engineers, first, as to making preliminary surveys of one or more lines second as to the estimated cost of grading the different lines third, the adoption of the best and most cheaply graded line fourth, securing the right of way over the line adopted and fifth as to letting the contract for grading and placing ties. A surveyor will probably be here about the last of this week, and the work of surveying one or more lines will doubtless begin soon The board are in daily receipt of communications from several well known grading contractors in various parts of the state asking when the contracts are to be let and soliciting correspondence The president of the association, B F Crowell esq left for the east last week and during his absence will devote the greater portion of his time in finding out the cost of iron cars, locomotives and the various other accessories necessary to the building of the road The gentlemen interested in the project are very enthusiastic about it, and from present appearances we shall doubtless enjoy a railroad ride from Colorado Springs to Manitou before the expiration of many months

Charged with Stealing an Overcoat.

Sometime during the latter part of July, J M Odell a boarder at the Colorado Springs Hotel left an overcoat in the office of the hotel with instructions to have it taken to a tailor shop and cleaned The coat was given to Jim Jones the porter of the house and he was told to attend to the matter Since that time nothing has been seen or heard of the coat Jones having left the hotel to run on the railroad A warrant for his arrest, charging him with stealing the coat was issued by Judge Smith and placed in the hands of Sheriff Becker who proceeded to Denver on Sunday, returning with Jones yesterday morning The examination took place before Judge Smith at 2 o clock yesterday afternoon, the prosecution being conducted by J M Odell the prosecuting witness and the defense by Wm Harrison esq The proof brought forward by the prosecution, was insufficient to hold the prisoner and he was consequently discharged Another warrant was soon after issued by Judge Price and Jim did not enjoy his liberty very long His second examination has been set down for this morning at 10 o clock at Judge Price's office

Our Mountain Freight Business

We give a few days [illegible] memoranda in regard to our freight trade [illegible] Since then [illegible] have been [illegible] or the [illegible] which will really show the estimate we then made of the business At the present time our freighters are shipping from this point to the mountains at the rate of 1 500 tons or 3 000 000 pounds a month Large orders for shipping coke and merchandise have already been given which will increase the shipments per month to 2 400 tons or 4 800 000 pounds This will be divided up in the following manner J R Magruder 500 tons of coke per month Geist & Matthews 500 tons of coke Grant's smelting works 200 tons of coke, Harrison reduction 500 tons of coke Burdell and Witherell 100 tons of coke and about 600 tons of miscellaneous merchandise to other parties To ship this amount it will require 300 eight mule teams, or 2 400 mules, to make two trips a month At present there are about 190 8 mule teams employed. Great efforts are being made to increase the freighting capacities The Rocky Mountain Transportion Co have just ordered 120 mules from Leavenworth Kansas which will arrive in a few days Freighting teams from Wyoming to New Mexico are continually arriving From present indications by the first of January next there will be a demand for at least 5 000 mules to carry coke and merchandise to Leadville and bring back ore and base bullion

Yesterday the Rocky Mountain Transportation company sent out 72 000 pounds of coke for Grant's new smelting works McGee sent out 81 000 pounds of machinery and other merchandise for J R Magruder and H A True despatched 88 400 pounds yesterday and the day before The St Louis smelting works received 258 mule teams loaded with ore and bullion on Sunday The amount received was about 200 000 pounds

Though this is simply a shipping point and we derive no profit from the ore brought to this place and the coke carried away yet the benefit to the city is immense The Rocky Mountain Transportation Co has paid out in this city from December 1 to July 15 about $150 000 This has been used in the purchase of grain and merchandise, repairs and wages Other shippers have paid out large amounts This winter the trade will far exceed that of the past winter, and the present indications are that Colorado Springs will be the liveliest city in the state of its size

O R CROSS Clerk

The Departure of Mr Wilkes

Mr Wilkes leaves the city in this morning's train very much to the regret of his large circle of personal friends and clients He came to this city five years ago and during that time has had an exceptionally first class of clients He was the [illegible] cutting attorney of the city during most of that time and showed his efficiency by greatly decreasing the secret liquor selling which was going on It is well known that the illness of his wife has compelled him to give up his splendid practice He has established the reputation here of a sound lawyer an honorable man and a courteous gentleman

He will settle at Sioux Falls Dakota Territory near his former home We wish him all possible success in his new home and trust that he will be as well appreciated in that place The bar of the city have paid the following deserved tribute to Mr Wilkes

COLORADO SPRINGS COLORADO [illegible] 1878

W A WILKES ESQ

Dear Sir The undersigned being members of the bar of this county learn with feelings of regret that you have decided to terminate your residence here and close your professional labors at our bar

For more than five years past you have occupied a position at our bar as a sound and able lawyer a skillful and successful practitioner which all lawyers desire but which few contain

Professional duties have frequently brought us in antagonism and so manfully on all occasions, even in the most heated strife has been your conduct that we remember no word or act of yours that has left a sting behind

We believe that under all circumstances and in every emergency you have exhibited the highest sense of honor and we can recall no instance wherein you have violated professional faith or trust

We heartily unite in wishing you abundant success in the new associations you are about to form and in confidence express the hope that you may be at all times in the future surrounded by hosts of friends and the achievement of rich honors and laurels fairly won

A New Camping Place

To the Editor of the Gazette

By request I go to the mountains to collect consume all the meat in my larder was within I should like to invite [illegible] to a free new town with plenty of wood feed and good water where I could quietly recuperate ten days Last year I was too crowded since receiving recently counted seventy tents in the Glen Lyons [illegible] bidden to hope Blue Ash Island and the Garden of Eden have no water Fort Lett's ranch is a grand island quiet place, and I had decided to go there, but the better half of the matter she heard of the [illegible] and had from there [illegible] which [illegible] of [illegible] where I am

Timber here is abundant but not too thick Feed is up to the horse's ears and there are several fine springs one of which is an ice spring There is a ranch within half a mile where one can get milk and vegetables It is as quiet as one can wish only two teams having passed in six days My tent is close by in an empty cabin with a good fireplace which I found very useful in the drizzling rain on Sunday

The view from this spot is grand and beautiful To the north it extends twenty five miles to the east fifty or more to the south seventy five To the west it is true the lady said that the mountains obstruct the view The sun sets here an hour earlier than it does at Colorado Springs—quite an item these hard days The trains look like black snakes creeping in as fast by up and down the valley of the Fountain From the time the express train appears in the Divide until they disappear down the valley they can be seen over an hour Grander views of course can be had from the mountain tops but this remember is a mere nine at the foot of the mountains within an hour's ride of town Here in a breezy dell under the pines I sit in perfect comfort during these hot days and with a good opera glass will let the town the train the droves of cattle that look like ants the distant teams that look like black pecks and the cloud shadows as they chase each other over their play ground of five thousand square miles or hide from one another in green valleys and deep canons

And what rest as I get A trip to Twin Lakes is very fine—I have tried it twice but it gives no such perfect rest of mind and body as one can get in this quiet and beautiful spot I am not however out of sound of human voices though they are not near enough to disturb one Above me in the mines lives a man who evidently believes in frontier life having lived in Illinois Minnesota Kansas Oregon and Colorado and intending now to return to Oregon It is true in his case that "rolling stone gathers no moss" only moss does it seem to cling to him he has eight

Years ago a large amount of money was spent near here in erecting buildings, tunnelling and digging for gold It is now a deserted mining camp, one of Colorado's curiosities

Truly R T CROSS

P S I take it all back about this being a quiet place Eleven boys from the Congregational Sunday school have come to camp with me for three days and there is music in the air But we boys are having good times If you don't believe it come and be convinced Yours R T C
